Title VI/Civil Rights

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 is a federal law that protects individuals and groups from discriminations on the basis of race, color, and national origin in programs and activities that receive federal financial assistance.

Any person who believes that they, individually, or as a member of any specific class of persons, have been subjected to discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or income status may file a discrimination complaint with MnDOT using the complaint form located on MnDOT's Title VI website.

Public Transportation Tips

- If paying cash, try to have exact fare
  - Not all transit services may carry change
- 24-hour advanced notification is typically required for all transit providers
  - Please book trips ahead of time if possible!
- If using transit for employment, work with the local transit agency to insure a proper pickup window
- Please be ready 10-minutes before the scheduled bus arrival time
  - Typically, buses will wait no more than 3-minutes for passenger's arrival
- Rates, times, and service are always subject to change
- All public transit providers are ADA and wheelchair accessible
- Notify the transit provider if a personal care attendant or service animal will be joining you
- Most transit agencies have a maximum number of bags allowed
